2. The Basic Management and Basic Supervision Courses under the excellent direction of [REDACTED] have greatly benefited this Division, and it is felt that the supervisors of the part-time night shift might also profit if the basic elements of these courses were made available to them during their duty hours. At present, there are approximately seven (?) to ten (10) candidates available for this course.

3. Any effort on the part of the Intelligence School of the Office of Training to present a supervisory course to this shift will be greatly appreciated. This Division will furnish the space necessary at the convenience of the Intelligence School.
